President Roosevelt Says that outdoor exercise is needed by the American people. That's all very well, but how can people with rheumatism follow that advice? The answer is simple—use Ballard's Snow Liniment and the rheumatism will go; leaving you as spry as a colt. Gives quick and permanent relief from rheumatism, neuralgia, lame back and all pains.

Give Your Sunday—Grocery orders to J. M. Laurence. Phone 311. Corner South Commercial and Ferry streets.

Several New Houses—For sale or rent. For prices and terms see Vogel Lumber Company. You Can't See a Horse Fair—Every day, but you can always buy a La Corona 10-cent, or a Bon Ton 5-cent cigar of your dealer. The best manufactured.

What Feathers Do You Wear—Ladies who wear plumes, feather or wings of any native Oregon bird are liable to arrest. Bird lovers in Portland have had several millinery stores raided under an old law of 1903, which forbids having any portion of an Oregon bird, other than game birds, in one's possession. Under this law, wings or any part of Chinese pheasants, etc., can be worn, but others are forbidden.

A Pleasant Hustler—The horse editor acknowledges a pleasant call from an old-time friend, W. R. Small, who came to Salem a few days ago for the purpose of managing the big sale of C. G. Given's shoe store. Mr. Small is a clever, genial, wide-awake, hustling man. It is a pleasure to know him, and those who attend the sale he is managing will find it not only pleasurable, but profitable. When he gets hold of a stock he makes it go, and when he gets hold of a friend he makes him stay.
